DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable Suzuki(6,344,836) in view of Huang et al(6,131,134).

Suzuki teaches a display system comprising an image processing device(10); a first display device(20) for displaying an image on a first display unit(21); a second display device(30) for displaying image on a second display unit(31); a first coordinate value input device(50)(see figures 1, 4) provided in correspondence with the first display unit(31); a second coordinate value input device provided in correspondence with the second display unit(31); the first and second display devices(20, 30) divisionally display an image processed by the image processing device(10)(see figures 1-4 and 7; abstract; column 5, lines 1-32; column 6, lines 6-43 and column 7, lines 4-17). Suzuki teaches the first display device(20) having an input unit(50) for receiving data from the first coordinate value input device(50) and receiving data directly(USB) from the second coordinate value input device(touch panel(34)) and an interface unit(USB) disposed on predetermined position in the first display device(20)(see figures 1-4, 7; column 5, lines 66-68; column 6 and column 7, lines 1-35).

Suzuki fails to point out the interface unit is a converting unit.

Huang et al teach an interface unit(USB, 120) is a converting unit(see figures 1, 6-8; abstract; column 1, lines 12-16 and column 5, lines 28-36). It would have been obvious to have modified Suzuki with the teaching of Huang et al. so as to develop according to the needs of a computer system(see column 2, lines 4-10).

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 and 9 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
